

Not far from the village, this old door can be found at the side of a small, overgrown footpath.

Look at the picture. What are your first thoughts?

Where is the door leading to?

Why has it fallen into disrepair?

Was it a mistake to let it open?

What dark and forbidden secrets lie behind its rotten hinges?

What ancient evil has made its home within?

From the picture as a starting point, write a short-story suitable for Halloween (do not exceed one side of a A4 page).

Short stories to be handed in to your English teacher until Monday, 31st October. The winning short-story will be published in the school digital media.